Plaintiffs,

v.

Eric Adams, Mayor of the City of
New York, Rohit T. Aggarwala, New York City Department of Environmental Protection, Eric I.
Eisenberg, and John and Jane
Does One through Thirty,

Defendants.

Case No. 23-cv-6585

Proof of Service

Affirmation in Support of Proof of Service of Summons and Complaint upon defendant Eric Adams at his Gracie Mansion Residence

Anthony N. Iannarelli, an Attorney at Law of the State of New York, affirms to the truth of the following:

1. On Wednesday, November 8, 2023, I served the Amended Summons and Complaint (Document 18), through an agent/servant/employee for defendant Eric Adams, at his residence located at Gracie Mansion, 181 East End Avenue, New York, New York 10128. The residence is fenced, not open to the public, but with a guard house at the entrance staffed by the New York City police office.

2. At the guard house I met with a uniformed officer seated at a window, Badge No. 15677, (male/Hispanic, medium complexion, age late 20-30s), and explained that I am an attorney and was there to serve a summons and complaint upon Mayor Eric Adams.
3. The officer stated that, while acknowledging it was defendant Eric Adams' residence, I could not leave any "correspondence" for the mayor there; instead, I was directed to go to City Hall where, as he claimed, the documents would be accepted.
4. I explained to the officer that, based upon my training and experience, police officers at City Hall would, in all probability, direct me to serve the summons and complaint at another location (as was later confirmed.).
5. I displayed the amended summons and complaint to the officer, stated they had been filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, and I would be leaving the documents with him, in his capacity as an agent/servant/employee of defendant Adams and to be turned over to the defendant.
6. I placed the documents directly within the officer's sight on the secured side of the fence not open to the public, and asked that defendant Adams be advised of the service of the amended summons and complaint.
7. My fees for time spent will be agreed upon with my client at the conclusion of the case.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing information is true and correct.

Dated: November 15, 2023.
